Total amount due includes the premium due to your health plan, as well as any service fee you are paying your broker as outlined in the executed billing and collection agreement. Please refer to your copy of the billing and collection agreement for details. If you have any questions, please contact your Account Manager.

Important Notice to Insured Customers - - Please Read: The total amount is due on the first day of the monthly coverage period. If the total amount is not received by the end of the grace period, the contract will be terminated. You will be liable for the total amount due for all periods of coverage (including the grace period) unless you provide at least 30 days of advance written notice of your intent to terminate. If you have more than one invoice, you must pay each invoice separately or supply support detailing the amount to apply to each invoice. If you fail to supply this support your payment will be applied proportionately to each invoice for that month. If the total amount due for all invoices is not received, you may be in arrears on all invoices, and subject to termination.

Aetna and Aetna Business plans administered by Aetna will appear as ALIC or AHM on your financial institution statement
