Description	MENTAL STRESS/NO PHYSICAL INJURY
	Shonday is stating that she felt unsafe and harassed by the dispatcher due to a series of events. The matter was reported to us on 4/12. The same day we have suspended the dispatcher till further notice and started investigating the matter. Shonday did not come to work on 4/12 stating that the dispatcher caused her anxiety and stress for which she has to take medications now and cannot return to work till the 18th. Shonday was not removed from the schedule and we informed her that the dispatcher won't be at work any longer and that we took immediate action to address the concern. Shonday is asking for worker comp to pay for the time she has missed work due to this situation.

Injury	NO PHYSICAL INJURY/NO PHYSICAL INJURY
Description	A car hit the van from rear passenger side which resulted in the air bags being deployed. Employee was fine otherwise with no physical injury but was reporting some chest pain. He went to the patient first clinic next day to get checked. They cleared him and told him it was slight pain from the airbag impact. Employee was given the day off as he asked for it to visit the doctor and then reported that he is doing fine and wants to return to work.

Injury	INFLAMMATION/FOOT
Description	No clear root cause. Employee reported that she is feeling pain in her foot from doing the deliveries. She was not sure if this injury started at work or there were prior underlying issues. Employee was immediately given a day off and told to visit the urgent care and get doctor's advice. Clinic advised he employee to be on light duty which was followed for a week. Employee went back for an evaluation after a week at that time she was cleared to get back to work. Employee has been working and got 2 nd opinion from the clinic but was not put on any restrictions. She is still reporting pain in knee but says she is ok to work even today 12/9/20.

Description	My driver was directed to park outside the Amazon station by Amazon's employees at the end of his shift. This was not the normal process as normally they park inside the station and do signout and then drive off. He was forced to parked outside by Amazon, walk back in for sign out and then walk back to his van. As he was going back, he took the ramp that goes back to where the van was parked and he slipped at the bottom of that ramp.
